

Accolades

Accolades is an annual event sponsored by the Center for Student Involvement and Leadership at the University of Arizona. This ceremonial embrace and salute to University excellence celebrates the achievements of students, organizations, departments and programs that deserve recognition for outstanding leadership.

We are currently selecting planning committee members and encourage you to apply.
Outstanding applicants will be invited to an interview prior to final selections.

Requirements:

- Be enrolled in at least 12 university credit hours.
- Must attend Accolades rehearsal and banquet on April 14th, 2009.
- Must attend weekly meetings

What value do award programs like Accolades have on college campuses?

What qualities do you feel you possess that will make you a valuable member of the Accolades Committee?

What are your time commitments for the 2008-2009 school year, and how will you cope with the time requirement of this awards ceremony?

If selected, I will meet all of the requirements listed above.
